

Webinar: Supervising RBTs: Transforming trials and tribulations of supervision into triumphs

Register today and fulfill your required BCBA Supervision CEUs!

February 27, 2017
10:00am-12:45pm PST

Cost: $95
Includes 3, Type 2 Supervision BACB CEUs

Are you supervising registered behavior technicians (RBTs)? Have you experienced challenges to this new responsibility? If so, then this webinar is for you! In this engaging and interactive webinar, participants will learn the BACB requirements for supervising RBTs, identify ethical issues as they relate to supervision of RBTs and the BACB Professional and Ethical Compliance Code, and utilize various forms and checklists to deliver effective feedback to behavior technicians using evidence based methods.

To Register, visit:
Supervising RBTs Transforming Trials and Tribulations into Triumphs

Presented By

Chris Jones, PhD, BCBA-D, Ivy Chung, PhD, BCBA, and Julie Ashmun, MEd, BCBA have a combined experience of 35 years as BCBA's and over 45 years working with individuals with disabilities. The presenters have worked both in clinical and school settings to provide supervision to behavior technicians, including RBTs, and to individuals gaining experience to fulfill requirements for BACB certification. Chris Jones is a full-time consultant as well as the director of operations for a local ABA business. Ivy is the owner of Sum of Learning, an ABA agency in Washington State, and Julie is the director of the Professional Development Unit at the University of Washington Haring Center.

Contact: (206) 616-8974
or pdutrain@uw.edu

